The Great Sphinx - The oldest monumental sculpture in history and the most famous statue on the face of the earth was created during the rule of Pharaoh Khafre (2558–2532 BC). The design of the Great Sphinx has based on the impressive design of the mythical sphinx which displayed the face of Khafre. The statue is the source of great speculations about its origin and age as it attracted many theories of pseudohistory and pseudoarchaeology.

The Valley Temple - The heavenly valley temple of Chephren is composed of 16 massive limestone pillars which are covered with polished red-pink granite that acted as the centre of the reception, Mummification, and purification of the royal bodies of the 4th dynasty.

The Egyptian Museum - The Epic Egyptian Museum was created to offer a magical road that displays the brilliance and glamour of the ancient Egyptian Civilization that dates back to more than 5000 years.

Mohamed Ali Mosque - It was constructed between 1830 and 1848, the mosque was named "The Alabaster Mosque" because most of its walls were made out of pure alabaster. The mosque is a replica of the Blue Mosque in Istanbul.

Coptic Cairo - Coptic Cairo is a historic district in Egypt, renowned for its rich cultural and religious significance. Located in Old Cairo, it is home to some of the oldest Christian churches in the country, including the Coptic Orthodox Church of St. Sergius and Bacchus. These architectural treasures showcase intricate Coptic art and offer glimpses into Egypt's early Christian history. The area also houses the Coptic Museum, a repository of artifacts, manuscripts, and textiles preserving the heritage of the Coptic community. Beyond its religious importance, Coptic Cairo's narrow streets and vibrant markets provide a charming backdrop for exploring the cultural tapestry of this ancient district.

Khan El Khalili – Khan El Khalili, one of Cairo's oldest and most famous souks, is a bustling marketplace steeped in history and culture. Lose yourself in the labyrinthine alleys filled with shops selling everything from spices and textiles to jewellery and souvenirs. Experience the vibrant atmosphere, bargaining with friendly merchants, and savouring traditional Egyptian street food amidst the charming chaos of this iconic bazaar.
