Pyramid complex promises an unforgettable journey through one of humanity's greatest civilizations.

The Great Pyramid - The legendary legacy of King Khufu was immortalized within the golden core of the Great Pyramid that dates back to 2570 BC which was built in only 15 years using ramps and 400,000 workers under the command of Hemiunu the main architect became 146.6 meters (481 feet) and weigh a total of six million tons. Within the great pyramid are the divine Queen's Chamber and King's Chamber that showcases the brilliance and mastery of the ancient Egyptian builders.

The Great Sphinx - The oldest monumental sculpture in history and the most famous statue on the face of the earth was created during the rule of Pharaoh Khafre (2558–2532 BC). The design of the Great Sphinx has based on the impressive design of the mythical sphinx which displayed the face of Khafre. The statue is the source of great speculations about its origin and age as it attracted many theories of pseudohistory and pseudoarchaeology.

The Valley Temple - Nestled at the foot of the Giza Plateau, the Valley Temple stands as a timeless testament to ancient Egyptian craftsmanship and spirituality. Carved from massive blocks of limestone, this enigmatic structure served as a crucial part of the complex burial rituals for the pharaohs of the Old Kingdom. Its serene grandeur and mysterious aura draw visitors into a world where history comes alive. Wander through its colonnaded halls and marvel at the precision of its construction, imagining the rituals and ceremonies that once took place within these hallowed walls. For those captivated by the allure of ancient mysteries and architectural marvels, the Valley Temple offers a profound glimpse into Egypt's rich cultural heritage and spiritual legacy.

The Egyptian Museum - The Egyptian Museum stands as a timeless repository of ancient wonders and storied artifacts. Stepping through its grand halls feels like a journey through millennia, where each exhibit whispers tales of pharaohs and gods, mummies and treasures. From the iconic golden mask of Tutankhamun to the imposing statues of Ramesses II, the museum houses a breathtaking collection that encapsulates the mystique and grandeur of ancient Egypt. For any traveller with a passion for history and a curiosity for the extraordinary, The Egyptian Museum promises an unforgettable exploration into one of the world's oldest and most fascinating civilizations.

Mohamed Ali Mosque - It was constructed between 1830 and 1848, the mosque was named "The Alabaster Mosque" because most of its walls were made out of pure alabaster. The mosque is a replica of the Blue Mosque in Istanbul.

Coptic Cairo - Coptic Cairo is a historic district in Egypt, renowned for its rich cultural and religious significance. Located in Old Cairo, it is home to some of the oldest Christian churches in the country, including the Coptic Orthodox Church of St. Sergius and Bacchus. These architectural treasures showcase intricate Coptic art and offer glimpses into Egypt's early Christian history. The area also houses the Coptic Museum, a repository of artifacts, manuscripts, and textiles preserving the heritage of the Coptic community. Beyond its religious importance, Coptic Cairo's narrow streets and vibrant markets provide a charming backdrop for exploring the cultural tapestry of this ancient district.
